

START DRAWING GINGELL JURY THIS AFTERNOON

Charles J. Myers, William Carter and T. J. Fleck, all of York, were found guilty at 11 o'clock this morning by an Adams County jury of charges of transporting and possessing liquor without a Pennsylvania seal. LeRoy E. Smith was foreman of the jury which deliberated an hour.

District Attorney Daniel E. Teeter said the drawing of a jury for the trial of George W. Gingell, Fairfield R. D., on a murder charge, will begin later this afternoon upon conclusion of the trial of Sherman Rex Anderson on a charge of aggravated assault and battery.

Adams County this week, for the first time in its history, will have two courts in operation at the same time.

Judge W. C. Sheely announced Monday afternoon that the Pennsylvania Supreme Court has assigned Judge Dale R. Shugart, of Carlisle, to the Adams County court Thursday and Friday to conduct civil cases during the current term of court.

At sessions in the law library at the court house Judge Shugart will hear the action in trespass brought by Glenn W. Brown, administrator of the estate of William W. Brown, against Norman Sponteller, and the action in trespass brought by Elmer R. Gastley against Henry U. Wagner.

It was decided to hold the civil cases while Judge W. C. Sheely is hearing the murder trial of George W. Gingell because of the great number of cases before the current term of court, and also for economical reasons.

Hear Liquor Action

The April term of court is normally scheduled for one week. Present trials will take at least two weeks — the longest period the court can "hold the jurors." Judge Sheely said that while the murder trial is underway "there will be about 30 jurors with nothing to do" and as a result decision was made to seek another presiding judge to take over some of the civil work. The two cases selected were those which are scheduled for "last" under the original plan for the current term, and thus most likely would not have been tried because of the number of cases currently on the schedule.

Monday afternoon the court heard final testimony and arguments in the charge of transporting and possessing illegal liquor brought against Charles J. Myers, William C. Carter and T. J. Fleck, all of York County.

VOTING LIGHT IN TOWN TODAY

The voting was light in Gettysburg up to noon today and a check of the four polling places at 12:30 o'clock showed only 413 persons had cast their ballots by that time. That figure included 305 Republicans and 108 Democrats.

In Cumberland Twp. where President Eisenhower voted, there were 106 Republican and 50 Democratic ballots cast by noon.

The voting in Gettysburg was as follows: First Ward, First Precinct, 51 Republicans and 19 Democrats; Second Precinct, 55 Republicans and 21 Democrats; Second Ward, 102 Republicans and 40 Democrats, and Third Ward, 97 Republicans and 28 Democrats.

The voting here was running considerably behind that of four years ago when President Eisenhower also was a candidate. By 1 p.m. on Primary Day in 1952 there were 535 votes cast.

FIRST APRIL 24 SNOW SINCE '28

This morning's snow — that melted as it fell — was the first to fall on this date since 1930 but there have been later snows here and more of it in some other Aprils, the records show.

Not since 1928 has there been enough snow in April to measure it but there were 3 1/4 inches then. The record for April snows was set here in 1918 when the month received 10 inches of the white stuff and helped give the winter of 1917-18 an all-time record for snowfall in Gettysburg.

The latest April snowfall on record here was April 28, 1911, when three inches were measured in Gettysburg.

The latest snow flurries on record here occurred on an early May day in 1950.

Today's snow began about 6:30 a.m. and followed a light rain. Snow fell steadily until after noon but melted as it fell. The low reading for Monday night here was 33 degrees. At 8:30 a.m. it was 34 degrees at the Gettysburg Times weather station.

Members of the Sigma Chi fraternity today were reported returning lumber to a pile at the site of a house being constructed by Harold Street.

GOP Seeks Soil Bank Bill Now

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican congressional leaders decided today to seek passage of a $1,200,000,000 soil bank bill within the next 24 hours.

The GOP leaders said tax reduction also was discussed at their weekly meeting with President Eisenhower. They indicated the feeling was that prospects are dim for a tax cut even if the government winds up the fiscal year with a larger-than-expected two billion dollar surplus.

House GOP leader Martin (Mass.) said he is "very hopeful and confident" Democrats will get behind the soil bank proposal which, among other things, would authorize the President to start making 500 million dollars in advance payments during this crop year to farmers who agree to participate in the program.

Martin said he was counting on support from some Democrats "knowing they want to help the farmer this year and not next year."

Soviet Cruiser Is Sunk In Red Waters; Many Are Lost

ROME (AP) — A responsible informant said today that a Soviet cruiser was sunk in a Soviet minefield in the Baltic harbor of Kaliningrad recently with heavy loss of life.

The disaster precipitated an investigation dispute which led to the firing of Adm. Nikolai Kuznetsov as commander in chief of the Soviet navy, the source reported.

A dispatch from Moscow April 7 reported that Kuznetsov had been replaced as Soviet navy boss by Adm. S. G. Gorshkov, wartime commander of the Soviet Black Sea fleet. The dispatch, which passed through the Russian censorship, said Kuznetsov was officially described as too ill for the job. The real story was described as entirely different.

The informant said that the lost cruiser was a former Italian vessel turned over to Russia as war reparations. He gave the name as the Novosibirsk.

CITES 4 FACTS IN PERSONNEL RELATIONSHIPS

Arthur Addison, president of the Lebanon County Chamber of Commerce, told the local Rotary Club Monday evening "loosely conceived and administered personnel policies are a handicap" for all business, and "particularly small businesses."

Addison told the group: "There are four reasons why your personnel relationships are going to be of more importance to you in the next few years. Those reasons are the increase in the federal minimum wage to $1 a hour, the guaranteed annual wage, the combination of the CIO and American Federation of Labor, and here in Pennsylvania the state's Fair Employment Practices program."

"The impact of the $1 minimum means much more to you than the raising of the wages of those persons receiving less than $1 an hour. In fact you may think it means nothing at all to you. But is bound to have an effect all down the line. It will mean also a revision upward of the wages of your more skilled employees. Over the years there has been built up in your plant a scale by which the skilled receive a certain amount more than the unskilled. To be fair, raising the lower wages will mean raising the higher ones."

FEPC To Make Changes

"The guaranteed annual wage is the fastest moving thing there is in employment today. A few months ago contracts were signed guaranteeing 26 weeks of work per year. Now it is 52 weeks a year, and the idea will spread. Employers should give some thought to how to meet the requirement."

"The CIO-AFL union obviously increases the organizational power of labor."

"Probably the greatest changes will come as a result of the FEPC regulations. You may not think you have policies, but you have established policies over the years by what you do or don't do."

"You may have been rejecting applicants for work because of age requirements in your retirement plan. The new law prohibits that. And if you say you are rejecting an over-age man because he cannot fulfill the requirements of the job you are offering, you better know what those requirements are if you get hauled up into court. You will have to explain why the particular applicant does not measure up to your standards for the job — other than in the matter of age, or you will find the court ordering you to hire that particular employee."

Need A Fair Policy

"And if you have been among those who have been hiring on a percentage basis, so many whites, (Continued On Page 7)

FIRE DESTROYS OLD LOG CABIN THIS MORNING

A log cabin, more than a hundred years old, near the Hunters-town Gun Club, was destroyed by fire at 3:25 o'clock this morning.

The structure was originally built, at the side of the road leading to the Great Conewago Presbyterian Church, by James Griffie in the early part of the 19th century. His son, Hezekiah, resided there throughout his lifetime and John Lesser, last occupant of the cabin, lived there for "60 or 70 years," old time residents of the community said today. Since the death of Mr. Lesser about six months ago the cabin has been unoccupied.

Firemen estimated the loss at "$500."

Assistant Fire Chief Donald Staub said the cause of the blaze was undetermined. When the fire was discovered the entire structure was ablaze.

Had Frame Kitchen The cabin was a 25 by 25 foot building with an eight by eight frame kitchen attached.

To prevent the blaze from spreading to fields and other nearby structures, the firemen emptied the booster tanks of the Mack truck and "Old Smokey," then filled the tanks at Clair Ford's pond and emptied them again on the fire before leaving the scene about 5 o'clock this morning.

The property was owned by the Frank Lesser estate and it was not known if there was any insurance on the structure.

Jack & Jill Shoppe will be closed Wednesday and Thursday.

Segregation On Montgomery Alabama Buses Ends Today

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—Racial barriers were hauled down on city buses in this cradle of the Confederacy today, but the head of the Police Department threatened to arrest any passenger who mixes with the opposite race.

Bus drivers who permit desegregation on their buses also face prosecution, the official said.

Montgomery City Lines Inc., operating the only bus service, abandoned segregation of white and Negro patrons today in the wake of yesterday's U.S. Supreme Court ruling.

A few hours later, Police Commissioner Clyde Sellers, a member of the White Citizens Council, said any passenger who violates city or state segregation laws will be prosecuted.

The council is an organization dedicated to the preservation of racial segregation.

"I'll be responsible for any arrests and I'll give the direct orders for those arrests," Sellers declared.

Mr. Eisenhower Casts His First County Vote At 7:04 O'clock

Dwight D. Eisenhower, thirty-fourth President of the United States, became the first President to cast a ballot in Adams County. This he did four minutes after seven o'clock this morning at the Cumberland Township polling place, on the Biglerville road just across the Gettysburg borough boundary.

The beaming, jovial President arrived at the polling place during a snowstorm. Both sides of the Biglerville road were lined with cars for several hundred feet and a crowd of a hundred or more was outside and inside the polling place to greet him. There was some applause and "Good Morning Mr. President" as his big limousine was driven to within ten feet of the polling place door.

Greeted By Basehore

John H. Basehore, chairman of the Adams County Republican Committee, was the first to welcome the President. He was presented by James C. Hagerly, the President's press secretary. Mrs. A. W. Butterfield, president of the Adams County Council of Republican Women, was then introduced and the four entered the polling place.

As soon as the President entered flash bulbs flared and the crowd of reporters and photographers, most of them the usual White House press corps which accompanies the President on his travels, gave way and Mr. Eisenhower walked directly to the table where he was given his ballot. He signed his name, the first to vote in the precinct this morning. Thus he added two more firsts to his catalogue of "firsts." He is the first President to reside in the county, the first to vote in the county and the first to vote in the precinct today.

Mr. Eisenhower wore a light-weight, light color topcoat, brown suit and hat when he voted this morning. The weather had dropped to 34 degrees.

Eisenhower presented himself to Clerk Herbert G. Raab, who handed him a voter's certificate, which the President signed.

The chief executive then received ballot No. 1 from Raab and went directly into voting booth No. 5 in a row of five, dropping a white curtain behind him as he entered.

Returns By Plane

Because of the snow Eisenhower dropped a plan to fly back to Washington aboard his light plane. He motored to Harrisburg, boarded his big four-engine plane Columbine III there, and flew to the capital.

The Columbine touched down there at 8:40 a.m. EST in a misting rain.

Eisenhower, appearing slightly tired, quickly boarded a limousine for the run to the White House. He was accompanied by James C. Hagerly, his press secretary, and Maj. Gen. Howard Snyder, his personal physician.

He drove from Washington to his farm last night. He registered here last Feb. 3, officially transferring his legal residence to Pennsylvania from New York.

Almost Forgets Tab

After he had marked his ballot, Eisenhower was about to drop it in the box when Basehore reminded him that the law requires that a perforated tab be removed before it is deposited.

"You have to tear this off," Basehore told Eisenhower.

Smiling, the President ripped it off and then dropped the ballot into the box.

There was a commotion again as Eisenhower made his way toward the door. One newsmen got shoved against an improvised fence and it nearly fell over.

"What are we doing here — knocking down fences?" Eisenhower asked with a chuckle.

At the door Eisenhower was halted by township Constable Fred Swisher who told him:

"I haven't seen you since I used to deliver your mail in 1916."

That was a reference to the days when Eisenhower, then a young Army officer, was stationed here at Camp Colt.

Eisenhower gave Swisher a warm handshake and said he was glad to see him.

Constable Swisher was on hand well in advance of the 7 a.m. opening time to get a coal fire going and see that everything was in order. In addition to majority clerk Raab, election officials on hand were Mrs. Viola Harner, judge of elections; majority inspector Bernard Miller; Mrs. Virgil Hartman, minority inspector; and Mervin Weigert, clerk to the minority inspector.

Mrs. Eisenhower did not accompany the President on the overnight voting trip.

NEGRO SUSPECT IN KIDNAPPING APPREHENDED

HIGHTSTOWN, N.J. (AP)—A New York youth comes up for a hearing on a concealed weapons charge today following his capture in a 90 mile an hour chase in a car state police say may have been used in a kidnapping.

Earl Robinson, 19, of New York City, slammed into a police roadblock on Rt. 130 here yesterday after a wild 16-mile ride from Bordentown.

State police said registration found in the glove compartment of the 1964 Cadillac listed the owner as a Pennsylvania physician whose teen-age son was kidnapped and released Sunday night.

A loaded German Luger-type pistol also was found in the car, state police said.

Probe Kidnapping

Robinson, a Negro, was to appear before Magistrate Samuel Bard here this morning as police continued to investigate the kidnapping.

The physician, Dr. Galen S. Young, lives at Providence Rd. and Bullens Lane in Nether Providence Twp., Delaware County, Pa. He practices at 2300 Providence Ave., Chester, Pa.

The doctor was making a bedside visit to a patient Sunday night when his son was kidnapped in the physician's car, driven to a dump, and left gagged and tied.

State trooper Anthony De Masi said he was on routine patrol in Bordentown when he noted Robinson appeared similar to the description of a man who held up a market in Camden earlier.

The trooper said he waved Robinson to the side of the road but Robinson took off through heavy traffic.

DeMasi radioed ahead and the roadblock was set up.

The car Robinson drove was wrecked at the roadblock and he was lifted from it unconscious.

Mrs. Morris, a housewife whose only son is a predoctoral captain, said the "Kitchen Cabinet" is "purely an educational project."

The cabinet and subcabinet wives were set to speak to small groups first and then summarize their remarks to the 1,000 delegates in a later session.

93 CENTS TO GO LONG WAY

The second and probably final amendment of the report of the auditor was filed this morning in open court in the distribution of the Sam Leonard estate. It provides, among other matters for the distribution of an inheritance of 93 cents each to heirs in Alaska and Florida.

The matter began when the Franklin Twp. School Board levied against the estate of Samuel Leonard, late of Green Twp., Franklin County, for non-payment of taxes. Leonard's Adams County property in Franklin Twp. was sold at sheriff's sale for $700. Attorney Eugene R. Hartman was appointed auditor.

First distribution called for $35.37 to go to the county, $150.17 to go to the school district and $74.93 to the Franklin Twp. supervisors for their back taxes. This, plus the $168.50 cost of the audit, advertising, court fees, etc., brought the total for distribution down to $199.83.

Originally the account called for distribution of the amount among seven heirs. Then an eighth heir was discovered and an amendment filed. Then one of the heirs died and the heirs of the heir had to be brought into the distribution.

As a result Esther Carter Duffey, Miami, Fla.; Alice Carter Mooney, Spenard, Alaska, and Bertha Carter Fisher, Pittsburgh, will all become wealthier by 93 cents each. Other heirs will receive up to $27.75 apiece from the estate.

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market sold off in a quick rush today, but it steadied around its lows in the early afternoon.

Losses sometimes extended as far as 3 to 4 o'clock, and there were many losses of 1 to 2 points in the list. Gains usually were small.

FACTORYMEN HELPED

Employees of the Gettysburg Furniture factories used a hose to wet down the side of the house of Mrs. Mary Aughinbaugh, York St., when a corner of the building caught fire Monday, apparently from a spark. Firemen had originally identified the persons who got the fire under control as neighbors. The workmen saw the fire and, calling the fire department, took immediate action to confine the blaze. Firemen said the fire was on the outside of the house at the point where siding joined and apparently came from a spark blown on the wind from some fire nearby—although they said they saw no brush fires in the vicinity.

FAIRFIELD SPEAKER

Chaplain (Major) J. D. Hockman, U. S. Army Ret., Blue Ridge Summit, will be the speaker at the annual memorial services to be held at the Fairfield Union Cemetery Sunday afternoon, May 27, at 2 o'clock. "MY SPAN"

Whenever recollection takes me . . . back to bygone days . . . I pluck the golden memories . . . and fashion sweet bouquets . . . for now I'm in life's wintertime . . . and need the tender touch . . . of things I never shall forget . . . because they meant so much . . . I think of spring and youthful days . . . when life was but a dream . . . and so the flowers of my youth . . . I value most supreme . . . then summertime comes back to me . . . with true love's fond embrace . . . and I can see its beauty still . . . upon my sweetheart's face . . . autumn, too, holds flowers rare . . . that bloom eternally . . . for middle age is still aglow . . . with wondrous memory . . . and so I view my span of life . . . with faith and hope sublime . . . looking to the endless spring . . . that follows wintertime.

that a defendant argued his own case before a jury.

Argues His Case

Atty. Wilson H. Oldhouse, York, and Attorney Donald G. Oyler represented Myers. Fleck and Carter appeared without attorneys and told the court they wished none. Carter testified and then appeared before the jury to argue his own case — probably the first defendant in the last several decades to do so.

Carter told the jury that he had asked Myers, whom he said he knew as Daniel Gates, the alias Myers had given when first apprehended following an auto accident, which led to the liquor charge, to drive him to Gettysburg so that he might deliver some gifts to relatives here. He said he had delivered the gifts, and then had gone with Myers and Fleck to Maryland and were enroute to York on the return trip when Myers' car collided with a truck five and one-half miles south of here on the Emmitsburg Rd. Good Friday morning. Carter said he was thrown from the car and remembered little from that time until he was in a police car with the other two men.

The three negro defendants agreed they knew nothing of four quarts of "moonshine" found 85 feet from the car, in a field, following the accident.

Enters Guilty Plea

The jury heard the charge of Judge W. C. Sheely this morning. After the jury was excused trial of Myers on a charge of driving while under suspension was scheduled. However, before the jury was drawn, Myers entered a guilty plea.

A jury was then drawn for the trial of Sherman Rex Anderson, 118 E. Middle St., charged with aggravated assault and battery. The jury includes: Norman G. Blocher, Aspers R. D.; Olive Bushey, Biglerville R. 1; Lewis Craumer, Littlestown; Mervin Day, Gardners R. 1; Charles Petrow, East Berlin; Harold Messinger, Littlestown; C. F. Nintle, Fairfield R. 1; Elmer Raffensperger, Biglerville R. 2; R. E. Shaffer, 20 Seminary Ave.; Dallas W. Shriner, Littlestown; Clyde Sterner, McSherrystown; William Wilson, Aspers R. D. Shaffer was excused this morning before the trial started and John Sachs, R. 1, was appointed in his place.

The court appointed Attorney Thomas Pyle to defend Anderson.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Wedding Bells: Settle—Currens
—Miss Emma Currens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Currens, of Cumberland township, was married on the 3rd inst., to E. D. York Central and Hudson River R. R. shops located at New Durham, N. J. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. W. Woods at the Presbyterian parsonage.

The bride is a most agreeable young lady and has a host of friends in this section. The groom is also well-known here, having been employed for a time in the Alleman Store.

The couple, after spending some time with relatives here, left a few days ago for New Durham, where they will reside.

Minter—Hainest: The Uniontown Daily News Standard of April 12th contained the following marriage notice:

"Norris Minter, a prominent business man of Arendtsville, Adams county, near Gettysburg, and Miss Estella Haines, of Bruceton, W. Va., were married Thursday morning, April 12, 1906, at the Lutheran parsonage in Uniontown by Rev. E. A. Trabert. After a wedding trip of two or three weeks they will live at Arendtsville."

Mr. Minter is one of Arendtsville's most prominent business men. Brumgard—Beachtel: Sunday evening, April 16, at 8 o'clock, J. Clayton Brumgard, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Brumgard, of Union township, and Miss Lola A. Beachtel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Beachtel, of near St. Bartholomew's church, were married, Rev. J. A. Metzger, of Hanover, officiating.

San Francisco Wrecked By Earthquake: San Francisco was practically wrecked by earthquake at 5:10 Wednesday morning. The shock lasted three minutes. Thousands of buildings were damaged and destroyed. The loss of life is great. No water was available and fires started all over the city. The City Hall, costing $7,000,000, is in ruins. Modern buildings suffered less than brick and frame.

Terror and excitement indescribable followed the shock. Most of the people were asleep and rushed into the streets undressed. Buildings swayed and crashed, burying the occupants. Panic prevailed in the hotels.

An Appeal: Gettysburg, Pa., April 23, 1906 — Feeling it my duty as Burgess of Gettysburg, and after consultation with a number of people, I have decided to issue an appeal to the citizens of Gettysburg and vicinity for contributions to the Relief Fund for the sufferers from the San Francisco earthquake and fire horror.

The calamity is the worst that has ever occurred in this country. The situation is appalling and the tragedy appeals powerfully to the sympathy of the American people. All those desiring to aid the cause can leave contributions at any of the Banks of town or at "Star" office, and the same will be forwarded to the proper authorities.

E. E. Slaybaugh, Burgess
Already several have responded to the appeal the first being Mrs. D. A. Buehler who contributed $5.00.

Little Coal In Town: The coal dealers of this place have very little coal on hand. Several dealers are out entirely, but are expecting coal daily.

Local Miscellany: The Senior class of College appeared at church Sunday in cap and gown.

Edward M. Lightner, who purchased the ice business formerly conducted by the late John M. Minnigh, is delivering ice.

The new drug store in the Garlach building, Chambersburg street, is about ready for business.

"The Parish Priest," rendered by the Chicago Stock Company in Xavier Hall Thursday evening, was one of the best plays ever witnessed here, and it is to be regretted that the attendance was so small.

Charles S. Mumper held another very successful sale on the Diamond Saturday afternoon.

Today's Talk

TO STRIVE, TO SEEK, TO FIND
"To Strive, to Seek, to Find," these words are from that inspiring poem by Tennyson entitled "Ulysses." Well can these words be used as a motto throughout life. Unless we strive we get nowhere. Unless we seek, with objective or purpose, that striving is apt to come to no good end, and unless we find for all our efforts, only God can alleviate the disappointment.

If you strive, however, with all your mind and heart, confident that you will earn for your seeking, what you find may be the joy of the prospector who strikes gold, after long faith and intelligent digging into the earth. Only to the will-of-heart do great rewards finally appear.

Tennyson may have had Columbus in mind when he wrote that great poem about Ulysses, for such words must have been in the heart of Columbus when he finally saw land — and became immortal. It was to the spirit of these words, also, that another intrepid discoverer, Balboa, owed his discovery of the great Pacific ocean.

Over every hearthstone of every scientist these words must be displayed, for each is embodied in the story of every worker for humanity. Men like Edison and his friend, Henry Ford, must have been inspired by such words, or at least by their spirit.

Each one of us in our daily lives needs the drive and inspiration of the spirit of those who have wrought greatly, in silent places, thinking nothing of personal acclaim. What a debt we owe to all such. Where would we be today had it not been for the brave pioneers who believed, and then did? I drive each day along the beautiful Hudson river and time and again think of the one who first put a steamboat upon its waters! What words these are — "To Strive, to Seek, to Find!"

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Gift of Dignity"

Just Folks

APRIL

April brushes off the snow
So the daffodils can grow,
Easter makes the gardeners toil
Just by softening the soil.

April may live on to see
Blossom on the cherry tree,
But lest she should get too proud
That not often is allowed.

April's duty, day by day,
Is to clear a path for May,
Straightening every sleeping room
So that plant and bush may bloom.

April is a housewife fair,
Busy cleaning everywhere,
So May's time may not be lost
April washes out the frost.

Held to but three hits by Bob Forry, Hanover righthander, the Gettysburg High School baseball team lost its opening South Penn League game to the Nighthawks here Monday afternoon 3-1 on a cold, windswept diamond.

Kenny Cullison hurled the distance for the Warriors and gave up only six hits. He yielded a trio of runs in the third inning and a pair in the final stanza. Forry whiffed nine while Cullison struck out one.

Hanover's runs in the third game came on a life to Lehigh via an error, a walk to Bowman, a sacrifice by Baker and Forry's homerun following the second out.

The Warriors tallied their lone run in the last of the same inning. Kenny Keefe opened with a single. John King drew a pass after which Roland Keller fanned. Forry then walked Fred Furney and Bobby Hess to force over Keefe. The rally expired when Harmon Spence popped to first base and Earl Little whiffed.

Hanover got a pair of insurance runs in the seventh inning. Heilmann was hit by a pitched ball and Lehigh reached base on an error. A single by Bowman, fielder's choice and another single by Pratt accounted for the runs.

Gettysburg, now 1-2 for the season, journeys to Shippensburg for another league game Thursday afternoon.

Hanover now has a 4-1 season log.

TWINS' MOTHER HAS 4 BABIES

NEW YORK (AP)—A tiny Bronx mother of year-old twins gave birth to quadruplets yesterday.

Mrs. Carmen Medina, 25, wife of a $40-a-week machinist, had twin girls April 10, 1955. She expected twins again this time. But she had two boys and two girls—a one in a million occurrence.

Mrs. Medina is 5 feet 2 and weighs only 96 pounds. The father, Ciprian, 28, is three inches taller and weighs 115.

The four new babies were put into incubators at Flower and Fifth Avenue Hospitals. They and their mother were reported doing well.

The quads arrived four minutes apart. The smallest, a boy, weighed 2 pounds 5 ounces. The largest, also a boy, weighed 3 pounds 3 ounces.

The Medinas were married in Puerto Rico in 1947. They came here shortly thereafter and now live in a $40-a-month walkup apartment.

Informed he was the father of quadruplets, Medina said: "I think I'd better earn more money. I can't believe it. I was expecting twins."

PHILLIES FANS RIOT AT GAME

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Warren Giles, president of the National Baseball League, says umpires at Connie Mack Stadium have been told to declare a mandatory forfeit of the game if there are any more bleacher uprisings by fans of the Philadelphia Phillies.

"The umpires have the right to forfeit a game if circumstances justify it. They have now been instructed that if there are any further incidents at Connie Mack Stadium, there is to be a mandatory forfeit of the game," Giles said last night on a local radio sports program.

Beer Can Barrage
Some of the fans conducted a beer can and bottle barrage Sunday in the second game of a doubleheader between the Phillies and the New York Giants. The incident brought protests from Bill Rigney, Giants manager, and Whitely Lockman, giant outfielder.

Beer is not sold at the stadium but is brought in by fans in bottles and cans. The Phillies are seeking a license to sell it in paper cups.

Officials ordered a 20-man police detail on duty inside the park and one fan was arrested last night during the Brooklyn Dodgers' 6-1 victory over the Phillies. Edward Conlan, 38, of Gloucester, N.J., was charged with disorderly conduct after he left the left field stands and went onto the field to talk with a player.

INTERRUPTED COMPETITION

MADISONVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Gasoline spouted for 50 feet when a 3-inch pipe broke at an oil company's bulk plant. Tank trucks were sent by four of the company's competitors, who succeeded in catching about 10,000 gallons of the fuel from a 15,000-gallon tank. They restored the salvaged gas after the pipe was repaired, then resumed their interrupted competition.

Pen-Mar League Meeting Thursday

Final plans for the opening of the season next Sunday will be made at a meeting of the Pen-Mar Baseball League Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Emmitsburg VFW Home.

Teams must have their rosters completed by that time and are reminded to have nine typewritten copies of the squad personnel, one each to be given to all teams and one to the league president, Guy McLaughlin.

SAY FIGHT CLUB OFFERED LOUIS MONEY TO QUIT

NEW YORK (AP)—The government produced a series of documents yesterday charging the International Boxing Club with offering former heavyweight champion Joe Louis $150,000 to resign as champ and sign the four league challenges to exclusive contracts as the monopoly trial of the IBC continued.

Assistant U.S. Attorneys William Elkins and Lawrence Gochberg traced the details of the formation and operation of the IBC through the documents to support the claim that club operates in restraint of free enterprise in professional boxing.

Agreement Reached
The government contended that an agreement was reached in early 1948 with Louis turning over the contracts to the IBC for $150,000.

Under the agreement, it was claimed Gus Lesnevich received $10,000 and Lee Savold was paid $5,000. Ezzard Charles and Jersey Joe Walcott, the other two contenders, were to meet in the first match for the title.

The government also produced documents purported to show how Jim Norris, IBC president, and his associates, bought off the late Mike Jacobs with $100,000 to gain control of Madison Square Garden.

Officer Wants To Preach Sermon

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—The Rev. and Mrs. Herbert Miller were so wrapped up in a conversation while walking down traffic light, a police officer whistled them to a halt and asked what was going on.

"We were just careless" Miller admitted.

"What do I have to do?" asked the officer. "Preach you a sermon?"

TED WILLIAMS IS BIGGEST GUN ON BOSTON CLUB

The Associated Press

How much does Ted Williams mean to the Boston Red Sox?

The inescapable truth is that the Red Sox, without Ted Williams, are a second-division club. With him, they're a pennant contender.

The recent series with the New York Yankees demonstrated how feeble the club really is when Williams is out of the lineup.

The combination of a light schedule and bad weather yesterday, which wiped out all major league action except Brooklyn's 6-1 victory over Philadelphia, gave an opportunity for a check of Boston box scores during the past four seasons. Starting with 1952, the year Williams left the club to serve his second term with the Marines, the figures show plainly Ted's value to the Red Sox.

From the start of the 1952 season to date, the Red Sox have won 316 games while losing 305 for a .509 percentage. With Williams in the lineup, they won 144 and lost 111. That's a .565 gait. Without him, they won 172 and lost 194 for a .470 percentage.

Williams' Power Tells
Boston won the first two games handsily this season. Williams clubbed four hits in five times at bat. The Red Sox made it three in a row the next day with Williams out of the lineup because of a foot injury. Then came the three successive losses to the Yankees, 7-1, 14-10 and 13-6. Ted got into action in two of those games as a pinch hitter, driving in a run with a single.

Boston's schedule game with Baltimore last night was postponed because of cold weather. It may prove a blessing because it gives Ted another day to recover from his injury.

Five games were scheduled yesterday, all under the lights, but cold weather, rain and snow combined to wipe them all off the slate except the game between the Brooklyn Dodgers and Phillies in Philadelphia.

Rookie Shows Well
In Philadelphia, young Don Drysdale, Brooklyn's rookie right-hander, made his first major league start and turned in an impressive performance. The 19-year-old Montreal graduate yielded nine hits but, striking out nine batters.

The victory moved the Dodgers into a first-place tie with Milwaukee. Each club has a 4-2 record. Drysdale, a lanky, baby-faced youngster with a side-arming style not unlike Ewell Blackwell, walked only one batter.

The kid himself set up the winning rally in the fifth. After Carl Furillo had walked, he got the first hit off veteran Murry "Cotton," a single to left. Junior Gilliam and Pee Wee Reese followed with singles to give the Dodgers a 3-0 lead. The Dodgers added insurance runs in the eighth and ninth.

GONZALES WINS OVER POIRIER

NEW YORK (AP)—A return bout was in the making today between Tex Gonzalez and Gene Poirier. The two scrappy middleweights belted each other freely in a telecast bout at St. Nicholas Arena last night with Gonzalez earning the unanimous decision over 10 rounds.

"One good fight deserves another," said matchmaker Teddy Brenner. "I think I'll rematch them as soon as their cuts heal."

Gonzalez, of East Orange, N.J., was cut over the left eye and Poirier, of Niagara Falls, N.Y., was gashed on the scalp as the result of a head collision in the sixth round.

Referee Ted Martin and Judge Artie Aldala each had Gonzalez the winner by 6-3-1 scores. Judge Leo Birnbaum voted for Gonzalez, 7-3. The AP card had Gonzalez a closer victory, 5-4-1.

The 23-year-old Gonzalez, still growing, outweighed his 24-year-old rival, 156 to 151½. Poirier had been a 2-1 favorite earlier in the week but it was pick 'em at fight time.

The loss snapped Gene's unbeaten streak at three and was his fourth pro defeat. He has won 15. Gonzalez' record now is 21-5-1.

Prices Are Not Popular With Public

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—A movie goer looked pained as he handed his ticket to theater manager Lou Sorenson.

"How come," he wanted to know, "you advertise popular prices but the tickets cost $1. Tickets that cost $1 aren't popular."

"We like 'em," said Sorenson.

NATIONAL CITY, Calif. (AP)—The municipal court put Alvin B. Cramer, 36, on three years probation and confiscated his bow and arrow. He had admitted exhibiting a deadly weapon—the bow and arrow—while chasing Hugh E. Maranville during a quarrel.

Veck Renewes His Baseball Cloning

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The Miami Marlins are counting on Leroy (Satchel) Paige to help them of the ground in the International League race but the ancient pitcher insists it won't be by helicopter.

Paige came to the Marlins on opening night—by whirlybird. He was supposed to land on the pitcher's mound before the game but somehow the pilot missed his signal and it wasn't until the second inning that Satch stepped out of the flying machine in a cloud of dust.

He was properly attired in a baseball uniform and ambled to the dugout. Someone brought a rocking chair. Paige obligingly took it and struck a familiar pose.

Bill Veck, executive vice president of the Marlins, insists that bringing in Paige was no joke but a sincere effort to help the ball club.

Paige, who entertains the other players with his antics, retired the final batter Sunday night in the second game of a double-header to save a 3-2 decision for Miami.

THUNDERBOLTS TOP SQUIRES ON BIG RALLY

A seven-run rally in the last of the fifth inning gave Littlestown High School a 10-6 victory over Delone Monday afternoon on the Littlestown field.

Lee Little, Delone starter, held a 6-2 lead before the Thunderbolts staged their big rally.

Each team collected eight hits. Ronnie Crouse, Al Snyder and Bob Orndorff each rapped a

REDSSAYTHEY'LL HAVE GUIDED MISSILES WITH HYDROGEN BOMB

BIRMINGHAM, England (AP) — Nikita Khrushchev said Monday the Soviet Union will soon have "guided missiles carrying an H-bomb."

The Soviet Communist party boss also told a Chamber of Commerce luncheon that the Soviet Union already has exploded an H-bomb from an airplane. He claimed Russia was the first nation to do so.

"The United States only now is intending to do this," he said in a speech. "The United States' first H-bomb explosion was from a ground installation."

Then, listing the areas in which the Soviet Union can compete with the Western world, Khrushchev said:

"Guided missiles — we can compete there, too. I am quite sure we will quickly have guided missiles carrying an H-bomb."

Crowd Heckles Reds
Earlier jeering demonstrators carrying anti-Communist banners heckled Khrushchev and Premier Nikolai Bulganin during a whirlwind tour of Birmingham.

Obviously excited, Khrushchev referred to the demonstrations and warned: "Never shake your fist at a Russian."

He told the luncheon that he and Bulganin—now on a 10-day visit to Britain for high-level talks—had seen placards "attaching us and Russia and we have heard the cries of many people. We have seen fists shaken at us."

"I would remind the man with the fist that attempts have been made previously to speak to us in that manner. Never shake your

Youth Threatened, Robbed By Negro

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A doctor's 16-year-old son was threatened with death by a gunman Sunday night, then robbed and left bound to a tree in a dump near suburban Yeadon.

He was Galen S. Young Jr. Police said he dozed off in the front of his father's car while the doctor was visiting a patient at a nursing home. A man opened the door of the car and putting a revolver at the boy's head, ordered him to drive to the dump. There he forced the youth from the car and gagged him. As he was tying the boy to a tree, the gunman said:

"I don't know whether to kill you or not. I killed another man only a few days ago."

The man, described as a Negro of medium height and build, took the boy's wallet, containing $1, and drove off in the car after asking the boy for directions to Washington.

list at a Russian.

"Hitler tried to attack us with a clenched fist and now he is in his grave."

On Friendly Visit
"Is it not time that we became more intelligent and not shake our fists at each other? We have come here not to create hostility. We have come on a friendly visit at Sir Anthony Eden's invitation and we are most grateful to him for that invitation."

At another point Khrushchev attacked the Western Allies' restrictions on the shipment of strategic materials to the Soviet Union.

"Do you think we are behind you?" he asked.

"We do not ask you to sell us guns or warships. We will sell you some of our cruisers. They are out of date. We all know that."

He also said Andrei Tupolev—builder of the Soviet TU104 jet airliner—is now building a passenger plane which carries 170 passengers and has four engines. He did not elaborate. In London, Tupolev had said the plane would carry 150.

In his remarks about the clenched fist, Khrushchev recalled that the United States, Britain, France and Japan sent troops to Russia after the 1917 revolution which put the Bolsheviks in power.

Unacceptable Method
"The Russian people made an effort and cleared them all out," he said, emphasizing each word. "Therefore this method of speaking with a clenched fist is quite unacceptable."

JOHNSON SAYS GOP CHANGES SUPPORT IDEAS

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) says the Republicans favor high crop price supports in election years, but are for low props in years when they are not running for office.

Johnson, the Democratic leader in the Senate, spoke for his party last night in a nationwide radio-TV speech replying to Eisenhower's address a week earlier explaining his veto of the election-year farm relief bill.

The Texas Democrat contended that when Eisenhower first ran for the presidency four years ago, he campaigned for high supports as "the best thing for the farmer." After the Republicans won, Johnson said, "this promise was forgotten."

Says Abandoned Plan
Then, after vetoing the farm bill largely because of high support provisions, Johnson said Eisenhower "completely abandoned his flexible supports" by raising price props for cotton, wheat, corn and rice above previously announced or anticipated levels for this year's crops.

"In 1952 and in 1956 the Republicans favor high supports," Johnson told his audience. "In 1953 and 1954 and 1955 the Republicans favor low supports. They favor high supports in election years and low supports in non-election years... If the past is any guide to the future, Gen. Eisenhower's Republican administration will go back to 75 per cent next year — if it is still around at that time."

The Eisenhower administration favors the present flexible system of price props ranging from 75 to 90 per cent of parity, a standard written into farm law and designed to give farmers a fair return in relation to their costs.

Called "Self-defeating"

In vetoing the bill, Eisenhower called it "self-defeating" because it provided for a return to high, rigid price supports on basic crops and contained other sections whose effect would have been to raise farm prop levels. He contended these provisions would cancel the surplus-reducing and income-raising features of the proposed soil bank, under which farmers would be paid for taking some of their cropland out of production and putting it to conservation uses.

Johnson said Eisenhower "can rest assured that the Congress will give him $1,200,000,000 to set up the soil bank." The Texan claimed the soil bank originally was a Democratic idea.

The House Appropriations Committee last week voted that amount for a soil bank when it approved an Agriculture Department money bill. Although some committee Republicans voted for this, they later issued a minority report contending there was no legal authority for a soil bank without separate legislation.

Claim Authority
Committee Democrats said there was under a 21-year-old soil conservation law. Johnson echoed this view last night.

In his radio-TV talk last night, Johnson used a film clip and a through an interpreter, Khrushchev said he and the Soviet Premier came to Britain for a friendly visit.

"We might be liked or disliked, but that would not affect the fact that a great Soviet Union is in existence."

The derisive greeting came as Prime Minister Eden's top lieutenant indicated cautious optimism that their talks in London would prove valuable.

"If we can judge from the talks up to date, and if deeds follow words, then we can say already that the visit has been well worth while," R. A. Butler, leader of the House of Commons, said in opening the British Industries Fair in London.

Police Constable On Cyprus Killed

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—A fleeing gunman Monday shot dead a Turkish Cypriot police constable in the heart of Nicosia's teeming Turkish quarter.

Fearing the incident might spark rioting between Turks and Greeks, British troops threw massive roadblocks around most of Nicosia's inner city.

He was the second fatality of the day and the 73rd in the year-old campaign of violence for union of this British-ruled island with Greece.

Earlier, a British soldier died of wounds received when a military patrol was ambushed east of Limassol during the night. Two other soldiers were wounded. The attackers fired 10 shots and threw a bomb as the patrol drove by a wooded area.

Drug Firm Denied Salk Polio Vaccine

HARRISBURG (AP)—A Philadelphia drug firm has been banned from handling Salk antipolio vaccine reports Secretary of Health Berwyn F. Mattison.

Dr. Mattison said yesterday the Philadelphia Drug and Supply Co. made shipments of the vaccine to western states in violation of state control rules.

He added the U. S. Public Health Service had been asked to stop all vaccine shipments to the company.

At the same time, the secretary said two Scranton firms had been warned on sale to out-of-state physicians but added no further action is planned because the doctors involved may have used a Pennsylvania address to obtain the vaccine. Dr. Mattison declined to identify the two firms.

recording of part of a 1952 campaign speech Eisenhower made at Kasson, Minn. He also quoted from another 1952 speech Eisenhower delivered at Brookings, S.D.

In the Kasson speech, Eisenhower said that "without any 'ifs' or 'buts' I say to you that I stand behind — and the Republican party stands behind — the price support laws now on the books." The President went on to say, "This includes the amendment... to continue through 1954, the price supports on basic commodities at 90 per cent of parity."

Johnson quoted Eisenhower as saying at Brookings that "the Republican party is pledged to the sustaining of the 90 per cent parity price support." In this quoted excerpt, there was no qualification as to year.

PRESS BARRED AT HISS TALK

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — News-reel, television and still cameras will be barred from the hall when convicted perjurer Alger Hiss addresses members of a Princeton University student group Thursday evening.

The university announced last night that lack of space is the reason for the ban.

A memorandum mailed out by the university public information office explained that Whig Hall can hold no more than 400 persons.

The American Whig-Closophic Society invited Hiss to speak and only the members of the society, and press representatives, will be allowed to attend. The society has some 500 members who will have to present membership cards to be admitted.

The university also said daily newspapers and wire services will be limited to one reporter each. About 55 to 60 are expected.

The public information office asked newspapers and wire services to submit names of reporters covering it; talk so they will be assured admission.

SAYS PRINCETON BOARD POLICY IS "NONSENSE"

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP)—The Roman Catholic chaplain for Princeton undergraduates has termed as "utter nonsense" the decision by university trustees confirming a hands-off policy on a campus speech by Alger Hiss.

The Rev. Hugh Halton on Sunday for the second Sunday criticized the invitation sent to the convicted perjurer by a student organization. In sermons at three masses, Father Halton said:

"The undergraduates might just as well invite prostitutes and embezzlers to discuss purity and banking."

The American Whig-Closophic Society, oldest campus debating group in the nation, has scheduled a speech by Hiss on "The Meaning of Geneva" for this Thursday evening.

Hiss, a state department official during the administration of Franklin D. Roosevelt, served a prison term for perjury after he denied passing secret documents to former Communist Whittaker Chambers.

The speech invitation has evoked heated criticism by some members of Congress, veterans groups, alumni and others. But the university administration has said it will not interfere in the matter, claiming it is the sole responsibility of the Whig-Closophic Society.

The university trustees on Friday voted to support the administration policy. But at the same time, the trustees voiced disapproval of the students' invitation.

Father Halton said the invitation indicated a "decline of spiritual and moral values" at Princeton. The university's job, he said, is

Body Of Fourth Miner Is Recovered

SUNNYSIDE, Utah (AP)—Rescuers found the body of a mine foreman a short distance from the spot where his three-man crew was rescued last week after a coal mine cave-in.

Joseph Ottersstrom, 58, father of six, had not quite made it to the shelter of machinery which saved the lives of his crew. He was crushed beneath tons of rubble dislodged by a localized earth tremor.

The three survivors are Lavell Marion Gidding, 39; Joe A. Archuleta, 43; and Lloyd A. Heath, 36.

Hank Greenberg's entrance to baseball's Hall of Fame made him the sixth player from the Detroit Tigers to be honored. The others are Ty Cobb, Mickey Cochrane, Hughie Jennings, Charley Gehringer and Harry Heilmann.

to train "the whole man—both the intellect and the will." "The mind should be treated as gently as the stomach," he said. "We don't put poison in the stomach."

The priest, who is director and founder of the Aquinas Foundation urged more authority and discipline at Princeton.

"A university administration and board of trustees which abandons its authority for unformed and uncritical minds does not put the students on trial. It puts itself on trial. It is already adjudged."

Nasty Outburst By Red Chief Dims Hopes For "Sincerely" Better Relations With Russia

LONDON (AP)—An outburst of tough talking by Soviet Communist party chief Nikita Khrushchev dimmed to a flicker today Britain's immediate hopes for sincerely better relations with the Soviet Union.

A well-placed British informant said some progress had been made toward a Middle East peace plan in secret talks between Prime Minister Eden, Khrushchev and Soviet Premier Bulganin.

However, he said tough bargaining remained if anything was to be worked out.

Eden was reported anxious to make clear Britain's determination to protect her Middle Eastern oil resources against any unprovoked attack. He was critical of the sale of Red arms to Arab nations, charging it has spurred rising tensions in the area.

The informant said the Prime Minister already had stressed to the Soviet chiefs the determination of the Western Powers to intervene against any Middle Eastern aggressor if Russia by veto blocks U.N. action.

In turn, the Soviet chiefs have pressed Eden for dissolution of the Baghdad Pact, which links Britain, Turkey, Iraq, Iran and Pakistan, the informant said. He added that Eden had refused to consider it.

However, the informant said an accord might be reached whereby Britain would agree to de-emphasize the military side of the pact in return for Russian support of a U.N. peace program that would include rationing of arms sales in the Middle East.

Khrushchev showed plainly in a speech last night to British Labor party bigwigs that he was nettled by the often cool reception he and Bulganin have received from British leaders and the occasional jeering the public has given them. The speech, which repeated old Red charges against the West, struck most of his listeners as being bad-tempered and abusive.

Only a few hours earlier, after being roundly heckled during a tour of Birmingham, Khrushchev had boasted there that the Soviet Union is developing guided missiles with "can hit every point in the world." "Never shake your fist at a Russian," he said in the Birmingham speech.

The Red boss's brush with the British Socialists came at a dinner in the House of Commons given by the Labor party's executive group and shadow cabinet—the men who would form the government of Britain if Labor won the next election.

Those who attended said Khrushchev renewed the old Communist charge that the West touched off World War II by egging on Hitler to attack Russia. He also denounced U.S. demands for a tight inspection system to enforce any disarmament plan, saying the proposals "would allow agents to look into people's bedrooms."

But what caused Khrushchev to lose his temper was an exchange of words over antisemitism and treatment of anti-Communist Socialists jailed behind the Iron Curtain.

Hugh Gaitskell, leader of the Labor party, protested that Russian Jews had been persecuted and asked Khrushchev and Bulganin to use their influence toward the release of Social Democrats jailed in Red satellite nations.

"There are no Social Democrats in the Soviet Union and what happens to Social Democrats in other countries is no business of mine," Khrushchev snapped.

As for antisemitism in the Soviet Union, he retorted, "Nonsense." Khrushchev's warning that Russia soon would have a long-range guided missile with hydrogen bomb warhead drew mixed reaction in the United States.

"If true, it is a significant and terrible warning to the American people and the free world," said Sen. Symington (D-Mo.), who is conducting a Senate investigation of U.S. air power as compared with Russia.

Air Force Secretary Quarles seemed less perturbed, saying he saw "no reason to distinguish" between Russian and American problems in developing long-range missiles. "Anything as terrible as that will seem quick no matter when they get it," he added.

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)—Frank T. Dotts, 57, Upper Providence Twp., Pa., died here on Sunday while visiting friends. Dotts was Delaware County treasurer from 1952, until he was elected a commissioner in 1955. He had been a supervisor and tax collector in Upper Providence Twp., and also superintendent of county buildings.
